

Checklist of ethics requirements for social research in the Department of Food Systems Sciences

Note: This approval is for social research only. Any other type of research, such as that involving animals or medical research involving humans will need approval from elsewhere.

Date of application: 17/08/23

Name of responsible researcher: Charles Rees / Christian Grovermann *

(This form should be filled out by the researcher who organises the data collection and who is responsible for ensuring that the data are collected and managed in accordance with the declared ethical code and the GDPR).

Project name (and ABACUS number): InBestSoil (Nr. 35245)

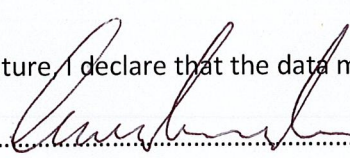

(This is the name of the project in which the data are being collected)

Projected date of starting data collection: 01/12/23

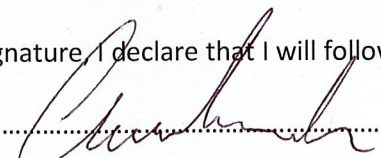

Declaration of compliance

1. Which ethics code will you follow? RESPECT
2. Have you attended a FiBL internal course in research ethics? (Yes/No) No
3. If no, with which member of the ethics committee have you discussed the proposed data collection?
Name: Christian Grovermann
4. Have you read and understood the ethics code in Q. 1? (Yes/No) Yes
5. Does the research protect the rights of participants in accordance with the ethics code in Q1?
(Yes/No) Yes
6. Are you familiar with the data management practices described in the GDPR?
(Yes/No) Yes

With this signature, I declare that the data management practices will comply with the GDPR.

Signature:

With this signature, I declare that I will follow the principles outlined in the ethics code nominated in Question 1.

Signature:

Approval by:

Ethics committee member 1

Name: Ejderyan Olivier

Date: 17.08.2023

Signature:

Ethics committee member 2

Name: Anita Frehner

Date: 17.8.2023

Signature:

Approval number: FSS-2023-06

* Note: Christian Grovermann is supervising the survey and is WP4 leader in the InBestSoil project